A CONSIDERED EYE. A SENSE OF PLACE.

Photography that invites you in.

I’m Kim Steinberg, an international award-winning photographer based in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa.
I create thoughtful, natural marketing imagery for resorts, hotels and guest houses…photographs that capture more than a beautiful room; they reveal the feeling of being there…

From considered interiors and thoughtful details to wildlife, landscapes and the experiences beyond the room, every image is made to help your future guests picture themselves there.

Interiors & property

A visual invitation to slow down, settle in and stay awhile.

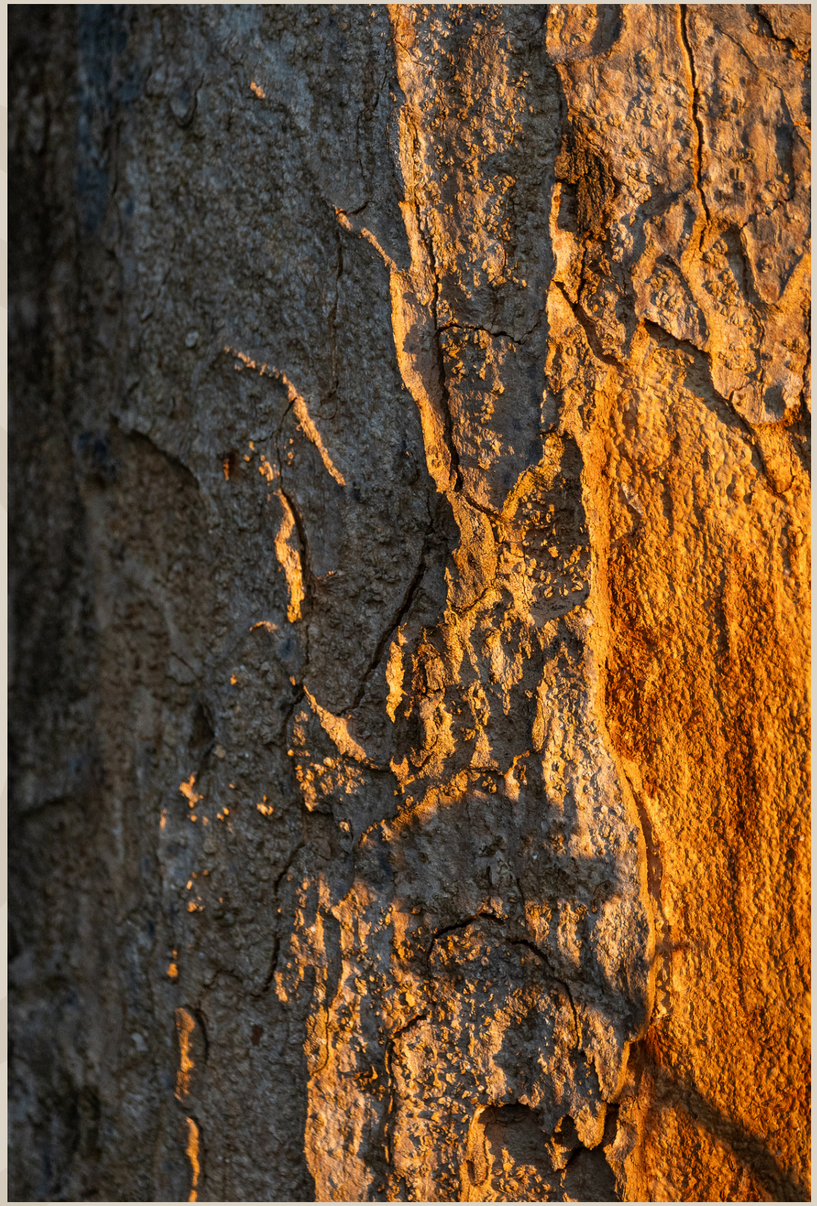

The atmosphere lives in the little things.

Thoughtful styling, tactile materials, considered amenities and the small moments that give a property its own character.

A sense of place, beautifully told.

Bring the wider experience into your marketing; the landscape, wildlife, local character and moments of discovery that make a destination memorable...

One property. Many reasons to visit.

A considered collection of imagery helps your audience understand the whole experience — from first arrival to the moments they'll remember.

INTERIORS

Rooms, suites, architecture, design and details.

WILDLIFE & LANDSCAPES

The natural setting and wildlife experiences around your property.

LIFESTYLE & TRAVEL

The feeling of being there, and the experiences that bring a stay to life.

REAL ESTATE

Clear, inviting imagery that presents a property at its best.

LET'S CREATE MAGIC...
